

ABSTRACT

A compound represented by structure (I) is described where R^4 and/or R^8 represent a sugar moiety. The compounds are shown to be useful as an antifungal and antiparasitic agent or as an intermediate to such an agent. Methods of treatment and pharmaceutical formulations containing compounds represented by structure (I) are also described.